Sole VVAW Chapter in CV Division is at Kent State University (KSU), Kent, Ohio. CV has opened CV file 100-30800 on this chapter (VVAW, KSU), which was organized in the Fall Term, 1971. U

For info of Bureau, there is close relationship between VVAW, KSU and the Joe Hill Collective (JHC) at KSU, which was previously known as an independent Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) Chapter. The name change was to preclude giving any appearance that the JHC was at all connected with the national Worker Student Alliance faction of the SDS or in any way influenced by the Progressive Labor Party (PLP).

JHC members are considered "associate" VVAW members.

Re Bureau letter to Albany dated 4/28/72.

Referenced Bureau letter requested each office to conduct a survey to determine if the VVAW Chapters exist and to report specific information about them by 5/30/72.

Omaha did not make an administrative tickler for this deadline. The Case Agent was involved in duties connected with the inspection of the Omaha Office the last two weeks in May and was also involved in duties as a relief supervisor shortly thereafter. The Case Agent realizes it was his responsibility to answer on time, however, this deadline was inadvertently overlooked. Every effort will be made to prevent this from occurring again.

The situation concerning the VVAW in the Omaha Division is as follows:

100-448092-1872

1. The Bureau was advised by letter dated 2/15/72, that Omaha did not have any organized Chapters of the VVAW. This situation has not changed as of this date. It was pointed out at that time that Omaha did have a group at the University of Iowa called Iowa Veterans Against The War, who were affiliated with the National VVAW. A report and LHM have been submitted to the Bureau on this group, which was never very active. As of May, 1972, informants advised that the Iowa Veterans Against The War existed in name only and are completely inactive. This case is still pending in the Omaha Division, however, it will be closed in the near future.

2. There were two individuals identified as leaders of the Iowa Veterans Against The War. The ADEX was submitted on 6/6/72. A report was submitted on 3/1/72, however, he was not considered for the list since it was felt he did not meet the criteria. The Iowa Veterans Against The War have not been a violent group and have been identified as not being associated with other radical students on the University of Iowa campus such as the SDS and the New University Conference. There has been no indication through literature or other means to indicate that the VVAW has active Chapters in the Omaha Division. In addition, there has been no indication that persons from the Omaha Division have participated in any national meetings of the VVAW.

3. [redacted] are available to furnish information concerning the Iowa Veterans Against The War. [redacted] have furnished information indicating that [redacted] have participated in antiwar demonstrations and are part of a coalition of organizations on the UI campus.

[redacted] would be available in the area of the University of Nebraska at Lincoln if the VVAW should organize a Chapter in that vicinity.

Survey Results

Jacksonville is aware that the deadline for this information was 5/30/72, however, as a "Southern Alliance of VVAW" was held Gainesville, Florida 5/27-29/72, it was hoped that specific information regarding strength of VVAW, Jacksonville Division, could be obtained and could be incorporated into this airtel. Unfortunately, this was not the case.

There is only one chapter of VVAW within Jacksonville Division. That is located in Gainesville, Florida and is headed by SCOTT CAMIL who serves as the leader of the Gainesville Chapter of VVAW, as well as the Southeast Regional Coordinator responsible for Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

As of this date, the known members of VVAW in Gainesville, Florida, aside from SCOTT CAMIL, are [REDACTED] who was a close associate of SCOTT CAMIL and allegedly a VVAW member, has departed Gainesville, Florida and supposedly is living in Arizona. [REDACTED] although not a member of VVAW, is closely associated with the organization and SCOTT CAMIL. Although CAMIL has, in the past, professed a membership in Gainesville, Florida of 25 to 50 members, it has been determined by Jacksonville Division that in actuality the total number has never exceeded 8 or 9.

VVAW, no investigation conducted, reportedly Army Veteran of VW, not verified.

Of the VVAW members listed above, two, ALBERT
HENRY HUBBARD and JOSEPH BANGERT are on the ADEX, and one, JOSEPH PETER URGO has been recommended for the ADEX.

Concerning specialized military training in explosives or the development of their skills useful in urban guerrilla warfare or violent revolutionary activities, no information is available that such specialized military training was received by those whose military service has been verified. [REDACTED]

the military or naval service will have received some training that could be useful in urban guerrilla warfare.

located at 25 West 26th Street, NYC.

1. There are no known VVAW chapters in the Phoenix Division. No meeting places have been established in the Phoenix Division. Referenced Phoenix letter to the Bureau, 3/30/72, stated that there has been no VVAW activity in the Phoenix Division since 1/72. In the past, VVAW activity has consisted of a few individuals participating in demonstrations held within the Division. Recent antiwar demonstrations sponsored by coalition of groups from both Arizona State University (ASU) in Tempe, Arizona, and the University of Arizona (UA), in Tucson, Arizona, have had participants claiming to be Veterans in opposition to the war. [redacted] advised that during a recent antiwar demonstration at ASU, a few individuals displayed placards denoting Veteran opposition but the names of these individuals has not been determined.

2. [redacted] advised on 5/14/72 that during a recent antiwar demonstration at ASU, a [redacted] and a [redacted] undertook leadership roles in a group proclaiming to be VVAW. Investigation has been initiated on these individuals to determine background and specifically, determine if they are bonafide Vietnam Veterans with any knowledge of explosives.

Referenced letter instructed all offices to make an updated survey to determine actual scope of current VVAW activities and membership and their capabilities for coverage of VVAW activities. Following is the result of a survey made of the Pittsburgh Division:

1. VVAW Chapters

The only known VVAW chapter in the Pittsburgh Division is at Pittsburgh, Pa., which is considered a regional office for Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia as well as the local Pittsburgh chapter.

Contact with sources and all resident agency territories developed no information indicating the existence of VVAW chapters in those areas.

On 2/15/72,  made available a VVAW newsletter from the Pittsburgh Office of the VVAW which contained the following:

On 5/16/72, [REDACTED] advised that while the above may be called chapters, they are not separate chapters, but all operate as part of the Pittsburgh VVAW offices. He said none of the above groups would have more than three or four people and most will only have the organizer. He said they hold no formal meetings and have no office space. U

Pittsburgh has opened separate investigative cases on each of the above individuals. If through the individual investigations, evidence is developed indicating separate VVAW chapters exist, cases will then be opened on that chapter. U

2. VVAW Membership

Membership in Pittsburgh VVAW fluctuates from week to week so it is difficult to determine exact membership. There is much dissension in the Pittsburgh chapter so new members usually do not last very long. U

On 5/16/72, [REDACTED] advised that in addition to the individuals mentioned above, the Pittsburgh chapter has the following who can be considered active members: U

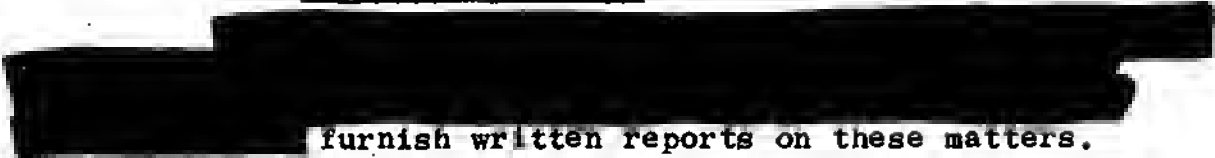

Pittsburgh currently has pending investigations on [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and will immediately open cases on all other individuals mentioned above. None of the individuals mentioned above are currently on ADEX, but will be considered for ADEX after sufficient investigation has been conducted to properly evaluate their potential. U

Members in chapter have been relatively inactive for the last eight months with present members more content to talk but not participate in VVAW activities. The local chapter does support National VVAW sponsored activities called for in the WDC area and on these occasions, the local chapter will call on the support of local sympathetic Vietnam veterans who reside in the WDC area but do not belong to the local chapter and from regional members - i.e., Maryland and Virginia chapter, VVAW members.

6. The Hottelstown Chapter has one active member -
[REDACTED]

7. The Fishtown Chapter is a new chapter which is located in Philadelphia a few miles from the downtown Philadelphia VVAW Chapter. Fishtown currently has no organization, leadership, or meetings and is closely related to the Philadelphia Chapter of the VVAW.

8. The Philadelphia Chapter has a membership of approximately 40; however, a majority of these 40 individuals have never attended meetings or participated in activities since the chapter formed.
[REDACTED]

The source further advised that
[REDACTED]

The source advised that although the national headquarters of the VVAW has granted charters to all of the above chapters it can be said that they exist in name only. This evaluation is based on the fact that these chapters, with the exception of the Philadelphia Chapter, usually consist of one active member, who is the leader. In addition, meetings are infrequently held and all of these chapters constantly look to the Philadelphia Chapter for the contents of directories issued by VVAW national headquarters. These chapters also look to the Philadelphia Chapter to formulate any plans, such as demonstrations, marches, or rallies.

Although the above chapters do, in fact, exist, in actuality they exist in name only, are poorly organized, have no communication with National Headquarters, and constantly rely on the Philadelphia Chapter for direction. Thus, it could be said that they serve as satellite chapters to the Philadelphia Chapter. They have been established because of geographical necessity in that members in outlying areas find it impossible to travel to Philadelphia for VVAW meetings.

Based on the above information, Philadelphia is not opening separate case files on the satellite VVAW chapters. Case files have been or will be opened on the members of these chapters, and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Philadelphia is conducting investigation regarding above individuals who have file numbers listed and upon completion of this investigation recommendations will be submitted to the Bureau regarding recommendation for the Adex.

~~MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION~~

Philadelphia is conducting individual cases on [REDACTED]

Philadelphia's coverage of the VVAW is considered to be excellent; however, this office will remain alert for any individuals who meet the requirements for membership in VVAW and undertake the development of such individuals. U

70 [REDACTED] the VVAW in the regional area of Colorado, Wyoming and Utah. (S) U

In response to reBulet, the following is set forth:

1. The Regional Office which covers Colorado, Wyoming, and Utah, and which is currently located at 847 East Colfax, Denver, Colorado, has been handling the planning of VVAW activities in the Denver/Boulder/Colorado Springs area and draws support from other members located in other Colorado cities. No Denver chapter, as such, exists. Leaflets handed out by VVAW in the past have indicated a chapter exists at Box #911, Student Center, Colorado State University (CSU), Fort Collins, Colorado, telephone #493-2364, and that VVAW has contacts in Greeley, Colorado, telephone #353-7913, and in Boulder, Colorado, telephone #449-5926. A news article appearing in the "Rocky Mountain News," a daily Denver, Colorado, newspaper, issue of 11/4/71, indicated that a VVAW chapter exists in Greeley, and that RICK CHRISTMAS, age 26, was the president.

Since information indicates chapters exist in Fort Collins and Greeley, cases are being opened as instructed, and LHMs will be submitted promptly reporting results of investigation.

2. As mentioned above, the enclosed [REDACTED]

BUDED: 5/30/72

Re Bureau letter to Albany dated 4/28/72.

Logical sources, Knoxville Division, have been contacted; however, no information has been received that the VVAW is active in this division.

For information of Bureau and New York, an organization by the name of Veterans Against the War (VAW) was formed on the University of Tennessee (UT) Campus, Knoxville, Tenn., in May - June, 1971; however, this organization has not been active since that date and was not associated with the VVAW.

This organization was a paper organization and all veterans at UT were considered members of this organization.

In view of the above, no further action being taken in this matter and if any information is received that the VVAW is active, this case will be reopened and appropriate investigation conducted per instructions set forth in referenced letter.

PURPOSE:

To recommend that in response to specific request of Departmental attorney Guy L. Goodrich information developed by [REDACTED] be utilized for purpose of obtaining search warrant in case involving indictment of six Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) members in Florida for violation of Federal laws.

BACKGROUND:

Information has previously been reported concerning the fact that a Federal Grand Jury (FGJ) in Tallahassee, Florida, returned indictment on 7/13/72 against six VVAW members, including violence-prone Southeast U. S. VVAW leader Scott Camil, charging conspiracy to violate Federal antiriot statutes. Indictment further charged Camil with being in possession of incendiary device and teaching techniques which could cause death or injury.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] as basis for affidavit in support of search warrant has been discussed with Departmental attorney Guy L. Goodwin, who handled presentation to FGJ. U

While recognizing the obvious advantage of obtaining search warrant to seize wrist rockets, we advised Goodwin of the extreme sensitivity of [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

This position was appreciated by Goodwin, no official request was made for search warrant and no recommendations were made in this regard. U

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] the wrist rockets were traced to hippie-style store in Gainesville, Florida, named Wang Dang Doodle (WDD). Individual who purchased wrist rockets has been identified as [REDACTED] was interviewed by Bureau Agents on 8/5/72 and has admitted ordering rockets but refused to answer any questions concerning his relationship with Camil. He was subpoenaed to appear before FGJ on 8/8/72. Goodwin presumes [REDACTED] will refuse to answer questions and plans to prepare immunity papers to insure his testimony. Jacksonville has determined wrist rockets are visible in show window of WDD and Jacksonville Agents are maintaining 24-hour surveillance at WDD to insure rockets are not moved. On 8/7/72 Goodwin stated that this would probably be last opportunity to seize wrist rockets before they are moved again and requested that expeditious consideration be given to using information [REDACTED] for obtaining a search warrant. ReBulet to all offices dated 4/28/72, and PXlet to the Bureau dated 5/6/72.

As indicated in referenced Phoenix letter to the Bureau, Phoenix has initiated investigation to identify individuals who undertook leadership roles at Arizona State University (ASU) anti-war demonstrations in the Spring. Inquiries have also been conducted in regards to the fire bombing of a recruiting station in Tempe, Arizona. As a result of these inquiries, four members of the VVAW appeared at the Phoenix Office of the FBI to inquire as to the nature and reasons for the Bureau investigations.

They stated there is an Arizona chapter of the VVAW. These individuals declined to state the number of members involved; however, they did speak freely concerning the objectives of the VVAW. They emphatically stated that they are non-violent and their intention is not to drastically alter the Government or the democratic process, rather to see the Viet Nam war ended. The end of the war is their main objective.

PURPOSE:

To advise that based on affidavit containing probable cause, search warrant was executed in Gainesville, Florida, on 8/10/72 and substantial evidence seized in form of high-powered wrist rocket slingshots of vital significance in case involving indictment of six Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) members for violation of Federal laws.

BACKGROUND:

b7D
By [REDACTED] to Mr. E. S. Miller memorandum dated 8/8/72 it was recommended and approved that in response to specific request from Department we detail information from [REDACTED] to be included in search warrant affidavit to establish probable cause for search of hippie-style store in Gainesville, Florida, named Wang Dang Doodle (WDD). Basis of desire to search WDD was fact [REDACTED] furnished information strongly indicating that a large number of wrist rockets observed in possession of Scott Camil, violence-prone VVAW Southeast U. S. leader and one of those indicted, had been returned to WDD. Based on this information and fact that Departmental attorney Guy L. Goodwin, handling case for Department, felt that seizure of wrist rockets was absolutely essential to successful outcome of case, it was decided that the best course of action was to have search warrant issued and executed.

[REDACTED] Florida, and furnished the following information:

[REDACTED] denied showing the present whereabouts of [REDACTED] but said [REDACTED] resides in Detroit, Michigan, exact address unknown. He voluntarily terminated his employment with the Wang Dang Doodle Shnp sometime during the first or second week of July, 1972. He did not recall the exact date. [REDACTED] left the keys to the shnp at his residence in Gainesville, Florida, where anyone in the house had access to them.

[REDACTED] resides with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] both students at Santa Fe Junior College, Gainesville, Florida.

[REDACTED] chose not to answer a question as to whether [REDACTED] is a member of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW).

He declined to answer whether he knows SCOTT SMITH. He does not recall a meeting at [REDACTED] Florida, [REDACTED] or about [REDACTED] [REDACTED] denied being a VVAW member but said he supports that organization's cause. He refused to discuss that cause.

He claimed he did not participate in a VVAW meeting at [REDACTED] Florida, during [REDACTED] during the latter part of June, 1972. He originally placed the order by telephone but does not recall the name of the individual with whom he placed this order. He recalls receiving the entire shipment sometime during the first week of July, 1972. He did not personally receive it inasmuch as he was not available at the store when United Parcel Service (UPS) attempted to make delivery. UPS left the shipment at Wise's Drug Store located next door to the Wang Dang Doodle Shop. When [redacted] returned to his shop he found a note advising him where UPS left the shipment. He immediately went to Wise's Drug Store, picked up the shipment and carried it to his shop where he said it still remains.

He sent Saunders Archery Company a check for approximately $116.00 to cover the charges. He said the check was drawn against his shop's account at the First National Bank, Gainesville, Florida. [redacted]

He said he placed the order for the wrist rockets on his own accord explaining he felt it was a good item to improve business at the Wang Dang Doodle Shop. He was unable to explain why he used sporting goods such as the wrist rockets to improve business in a licensed "merchandise retail store". He didn't feel he violated the conditions of the license.

[redacted] said he is unable to authorize a consent to search the premises of the Wang Dang Doodle Shop inasmuch as he is no longer an employee. He advised this authorization can only be obtained from the owners.

[redacted] refused to be a witness for the Government, saying he holds the Government in low esteem.

He concluded by saying he will remain [redacted]

When asked how he could recognize the photograph, he responded that the person in the photograph

He was then handed several black and white photographs of the same individual as in photograph three, and he picked out a side view of the same person and said that this side view was a better identification of that person, and said that he was then 100 percent sure that the photograph was identical to the person. INTERNAL SECURITY - REVOLUTIONARY ACTIVITIES

PURPOSE:

To furnish details of additional outstanding development in case involving indictment of six Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) members by Federal Grand Jury (FGJ) for violation of Federal statutes, including conspiracy to riot during Republican National Convention (RNC).

BACKGROUND:

In connection with our continuing intensive investigation in order to develop all possible physical evidence and information pertinent to trial of VVAW members charged with violation of Federal antiriot laws, information was previously developed by Miami Office that Dade County Department of Public Safety (DCDPS), Miami, was aware that an individual named [REDACTED]

Considering potential key testimony of [REDACTED] intensive investigation was pressed by Miami Office and [REDACTED] was located residing in [REDACTED] Miami furnished all available background information regarding [REDACTED] and this matter to Detroit. In view of expected reluctance of [REDACTED] to be interviewed and agreed to testify, and at request of the Department, a subpoena was issued commanding [REDACTED] appearance before FGJ on 9/7/72.
